UPPER EAST SIDE
OF TEXAS
PHOTO CONTEST

County Line Magazine hosts its first photography contest this year, looking for outstanding work that defines some aspect of life or the land in the Upper East Side of Texas. Original photos taken by readers of any age can be in color or black-and-white, and the subject can be people, places, or other aspects of the culture that help tell the East Texas story. Deadline is August 10, with first-, second-, and third-place winners to be presented in the September issue. The first-place winner gets a three-year subscription to County Line; second place gets a two-year subscription, and third place gets a one-year subscription.

RULES

Contestants must live in Northeast Texas. One photo per entry submitted digitally by email or on CD (200-300 dpi and 2 megabytes or less) OR a high rez print out, accompanied by the entry form to include name, mailing address, and parental permission for anyone under the age of 18. Students list age, grade, teacher, and school; use corresponding grade "age" for home schools. Photo must be original and will not be returned so photographers are encouraged to keep a copy.

MAIL ENTRIES TO:

County Line Magazine, P.O. Box 1320, Van, TX 75790
Entry forms also available on www.countylinemagazine.com

All Entries Must Be Received by August 10, 2008.

Entries judged by local, professional photographers. If you have questions, call 903.963.5570 or 3788 or email Tom Geddie at editor@countylinemagazine.com.
